

THE WHITE HORSE, RENDHAM FREEHOUSE

~~~
REAL ALE & REAL FOOD

2007 4th BEER FESTIVAL

Real Ales available as well as our regular 'house' beers, Earl Soham – Victoria 3.6%abv, Timothy Taylors – Landlord 4.3%abv, Mauldons – Suffolk Pride 4.8%abv.

|                                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|    | MAULDONS SILVER ADDER 4.2%abvSilver Adder is a light coloured bitter with fine hop and malt combinations giving a refreshing crisp finish. Brewed to celebrate 25 years of brewing.Location: Sudbury, Suffolk                                                                     |    | H.B. CLARK'S RAMS REVENGE 4.6%abvA rich ruby dark copper coloured ale, Well balanced with its roast barley and malt. It has a deep fruity taste with a smooth dry finish.Location: Wakefield, West Yorkshire                                     |
|    | DARK STAR FESTIVAL ALE 5.0%abvA chestnut bronze coloured ale with a smooth mouthfeel and freshness a classic Sussex style strong bitterLocation: Haywards Heath, Sussex                                                                                                           |    | CROUCH VALE BREWERS GOLD EXTRA 5.2%abvBrewers Gold for the brave. Slips down nice and easy, with dramatic effects! Location: South Woodham Ferrers, nr. Chelmsford                                                                                    |
|   | EARL SOHAM GOLD BITTER 5.3%abvGold brewed from locally produced pilot hops from Wright Brother farm Surprisingly drinkable for a strong beer.Location: Earl Soham, Suffolk                                                                                                        |   | WOLF BREWERY GOLDEN JACKAL 3.7%abvA hoppy thirst-quenching golden session bitter, with a flowery nose and slightly citrus after-taste. The hop flavour lasts right through to the bottom of the glass.Location: Besthorpe, Attleborough, Norfolk |
|  | ELGOODS GOLDEN NEWT 4.1%abvA pale session beer with a prominent hop character; a blend of fuggles, goldings and cascade has been used in the recipe to bring the delicate hop flavours and aroma to the fore.Location: Wisbech Cambridgeshire                                     |  | ST.AUSTELL TRIBUTE 4.2%abvTribute is a magnificent example of a bronze coloured English bitter, with a rich aroma of biscuity malt and tart citrus fruit from the Willamette hops.Location: St.Austell ,Cornwall                                 |
|  | MIGHTY OAK MALDON GOLD 3.8%abvBrewed using Maris Otter pale malt for a light golden malt flavour Mount Hood and First Gold hops give a distinctive citrus character along with a dry bitter finish. GOLD IN CLASS GBBF 2007 SILVER OVERALL IN GBBF 2007 Location: Maldon, Essex | No Image available                                                           | ELGOODS EMNETH GIANT KILLER 4.6%abvBrewed for Peterborough Beer Festival. Give it a try!Location: Wisbech Cambridgeshire                                                                                                                         |
|  | EARL SOHAM SIR ROGERS PORTER 4.2%abv Black, full bodied and can be sweet.Brewed using pale malt, crystal malt, chocolate malt, and roasted barley, with mostly Fuggles hops and a few Goldings.Location: Earl Soham, Suffolk                                                      |  | CYDERSWestons Original Perry 4.5%abvLight and fruity with a well balanced sweetness. A perfect drink for all occasions                                                                                                                    |
|  | BLACK SHEEP BLACK SHEEP ALE 4.4%abvFull flavoured premium beer, with a rich fruity aroma; brewed with choice Goldings hops giving a bittersweet malty taste, followed by Black Sheep characteristic long dry bitter finish. Location: Masham North Yorkshire                           |  | Westons Old Rosie Scruppy Cider 7.3%abvAllowed to settle out naturally after fermentation resulting in a truly old fashioned, full flavoured, appley, cloudy scrumpy; with a well balanced medium dry character.                                      |
|  | EARL SOHAM GANNET MILD 3.3%abvDark , fuggley and can be slightly sweet. Brewed using pale malt, crystal malt, and black malt, and only Fuggles hops. Location: Earl Soham, Suffolk                                                                                                     |                                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |

PROPRIETERS: PAUL & LISA BOSWELL

Bruisyard Road – Rendham – Saxmundham – IP17 2AF Tel: 01728 663497

www.whitehoserendham.co.uk